

CCRW FINANCIAL SECTOR SURVEY RESULTS 2017

In October 2017, 734 people participated in the CCRW Financial Sector Survey

Over half of respondents were interested in working in the Financial Sector

53% of respondents had assistance with their job search from a community agency

Community Agency Support During Job Searching

40% of respondents had assistance in finding job postings

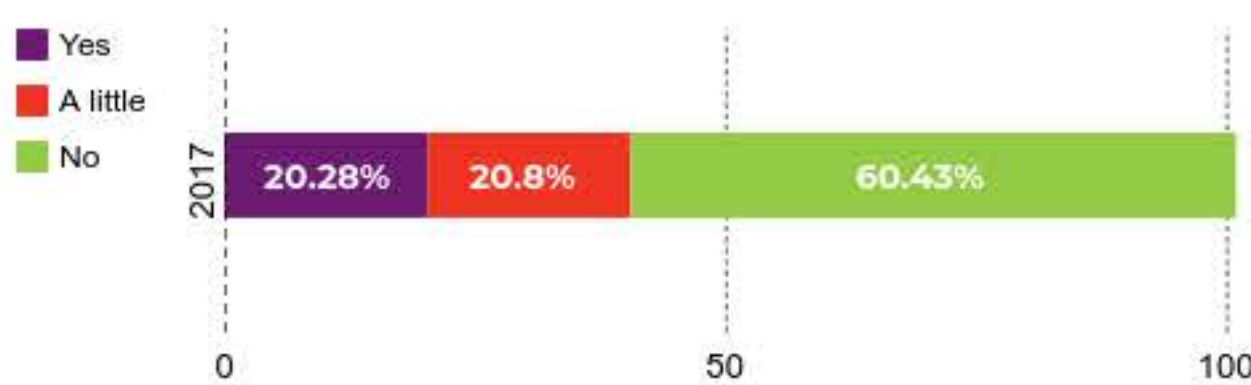

47% of respondents had assistance with their resumes

35% of respondents had assistance in applying for jobs online

38% of respondents had assistance in completing objective testing

Community Agency Support During Job Interviewing

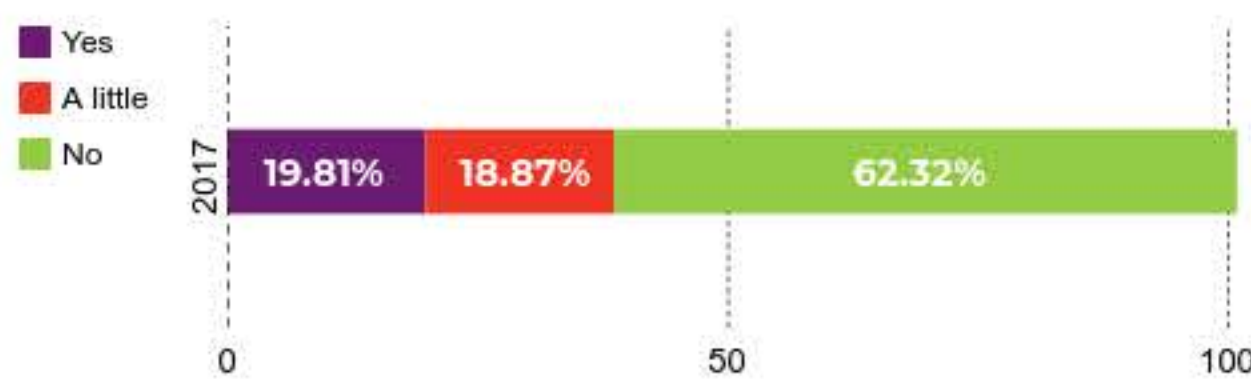

Did a community agency help you to prepare for a telephone interview?

Did a community agency help you to prepare for an in-person interview?

Did a community agency help you to prepare in advance of receiving a job offer?

Community Agency Support During Negotiations, Hiring, and Probation

22% of respondents said that community agencies helped them negotiate a job offer

68% of respondents said they were not helped with job coaching during the hiring and probationary period

This project is brought to you by the Canadian Council on Rehabilitation and Work and funded by the Sector Planning Partnership Grant through Employment Ontario under the Ministry of Advanced Education and Skills Development

LÉSIONS MÉDULLAIRES ONTARIO

Scotiabank